Face & Body Spa & Healthy Aging Conference Announces Advisory Board

CAROL STREAM, ILLINOIS - Allured Publishing Corporation and Skin Inc. magazine have announced the appointment of a distinguished group of industry professionals to serve a two-year term on an Advisory Board for the 2005 and 2006 Face & Body Spa & Healthy Aging Conference and Exhibition. Located in spectacular San Francisco, the show will be held November 19-21, 2005. Keeping its successful conference/expo format, Saturday, November 19, will be devoted to an industry-leading, product-neutral Advanced Education program followed by a two-day exhibition, Sunday and Monday, November 20 & 21.

“We are delighted that such a diverse group of industry professionals have made the commitment to share their time and ideas with Face & Body 2005,” commented Melinda Taschetta-Millane, Skin Inc. magazine’s editor and Face & Body conference program director. “Our board represents leaders from all facets of the industry: product development, manufacturing, education, retail spa and consumer awareness.” Advisory board members include:

Deedee Carlson, President, San Francisco Institute of Esthetics & Cosmetology; Rebecca James Gadberry, President, YG Laboratories; Pat Lam, Vice Principal, Skin Care Consultants; Manon Pilon, Educator, Physiadermie (Methode)/Europe Lab, Inc.; Peter T. Pugliese, MD, Founder and President, Circadia by Dr. Pugliese; Francois Requier, General Director, Sothys USA; Lydia Sarfati, Founder and President, Sarkli-Repêchage, Ltd.; Dori Soukup, COO, Pevonia Botanica; Mary Thé, President of Mary Thé Skin Care, San Francisco; and Mary Bemis, Founder and Editorial Director, Insider’s Guide to Spas.com.

Face & Body is the only industry event that offers a forum to connect spa industry professionals with their colleagues who serve the healthy aging, wellness, personal care, fitness, cosmetic and nutrition industries. The Face & Body conference is the industry’s leading product-neutral Advanced Education program where dedicated skin care professionals come together to learn from distinguished industry educators. Industry partners are encouraged to include this signature event on their calendars.
